Let's Build Community

Everything has changed

Nothing has changed

The Remote Worker

Often feels:

- Socially Isolated
- Guilty
- Afraid of being left behind

A photograph of a dog, possibly a Weimaraner, looking out of a window. The dog is white with brown patches and is sitting on the windowsill, looking towards the right.

Uncertainty Leads to Fear

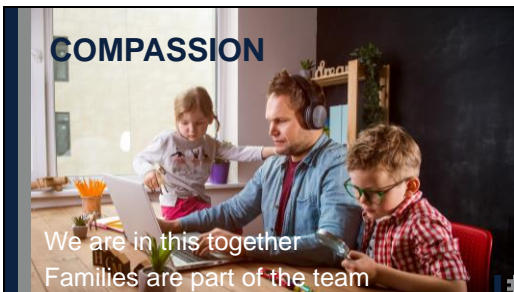

A photograph of a man in a grey hoodie and glasses, seen from the back, looking out a window. His hands are clasped behind his head. The view outside shows a residential building and trees.

The solution is each other

If we can rely on one another, we can cope with almost anything. Without each other, we retreat into fear.

WE ARE IN THIS TOGETHER

A black and white photograph of a group of children holding hands in a circle, standing in a field. The children are of various ages and are looking away from the camera.
